ENDOWMENT FOR THE MASONIC HOME

Matter Again Taken Up at the Session Yesterday-Prospects are Bright.

The Board of Governors of the Mamonthly session at the office Judge B. R. Wellford, Jr., in the City

Hall at 12 M. yesterday, The reports of the chairmen of the various committees were read, and showed that the several interests and departments of the Home were being carefully looked after and were in good shape.

The helath of the boys and girls of The helath of the boys and girls of the Home is excellent, and with such propitious beginning of the year, with good health and all departments in good condition, the board expresses the hope that it will be one of the best years of the grand institution since its foundation. The following officers and members were at the meeting: Judge B. R. Wellford, Jr., president; C. A. Nesbitt, secretary; Dr. George H. Ray, Major A. R. Courtney, J. Thompson Brown, W. E. Poole, Julius Straus and John W. Richardson.

Poole, Julius Straus and John W. Richardson.

The question of raising an endowment fund for the Home, which has been discussed before, was again taken up by the board, and they hope soon to perfect a plan through which a good and sufficient endowment can be secured.

Several inmates of the Home having reached the age and educational limit of reighteen years have recontly left to take lucrative business situations.

The board in every case reaching the age limit does all in its power to secure good places for those who under the charter cannot longer remain in the Home, and in most every case meet with success, the training of the Home being such as to make their services desirable and valuable to those in need of them.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

Rev. Maurice Penfield Fikes is to Be Next in March.

Rev. Maurice Penfield Fikes, a most eloquent divine, will conduct a series of special meetings at Grace-Street Baptist Church beginning March 1st. A large shoir is being organized which will sing under the direction of Mr. B. F. Cos-

Elders and deacons were elected at Grace-Street Presbyterian Church last night as follows: Elders, Judge Daniel Grinnan, James W. Gordon, Dr. Wm. S. Gordon, W. S. Rhoads and Ernest Chakkley; and as deacons, Gennet Bur-russ, Kent Rawley, George Bryan and James M. Clift.

The Prasbyterian Committee of Publication will shortly issue a book by the Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr, of the First Presbyterian Church, on the Covenanters. The book is intended for the young people.

ADMIRABLE METHOD

Dr. A. M. Block's Book Renders the Acquirement of Languages Easy,

A most admirable book, making easy the learning of German, French, and Spanish, is being introduced here by Dr. A. M. Block, of Vienna.

The author has appeared before the students of Richmond College, Smithdeal's Business College, the Medical Coldeal's Business College, the Mcdleal Col-lege of Virginia, and the Union Theologi-cal Seminary. At each place he awakened great interest in his work, and received from President F. W. Boatwright, of Richmond College, a letter speaking of it in high terms.

Dr. Block's book has been adopted by four colleges in Philadelphia and the Btate Normal School of Pennsylvania.

The intrinsic merit of the book is great, and under his system there is doubt that the most rapid progress can be made.

Italian Minister Now Asking

Germany's Repudiation of Count Quadt's Agreement Has Caused Dissention, England Will Not Amend Her Convention.

(By Associated Press.)
WABHINGTON, February 12.—At the argent suggestion of Baron Von Sternburg, the German Government has agreed to walve its demand for a cash payment of $340,000, and has accepted the propo sition of its minister, that it receive this money from Venezueala in five monthly installments, the first installment to be paid two weeks after the signing of the protocol. This fact was communi-cated to Mr. Bowen this morning, and the German Minister hopes to have his pro-tocol ready for signature within the next twenty-four hours. twenty-four hours.

Italy is somewhat annoyed at Germany's demand for increased cash, and the Italian Ambassador cannot present his protecol for signature until the receipts of further instructions from his government.

Germany's repudiation of Count Quadt's action, who early in the negotiations signed with the other negotiators an agreement to the effect that the allies would waive cash payment provided a sufficient guarantee was offered by Mr. Bowen, has stirred up airife between the allies. Although the London government is not disposed to alter its protocol, which already has received Mr. Bowen's verbal approval, Italy is still considering whether she will consent to accept less than her ally.

than her ally.
Signor Mayor des Planches, the Italian Signor Mayor des Planches, the Italian Ambassador, appeared at Mr. Bowen's hotel with his entire staff this morning prepared to put the finishing touches on his protool, and in order that this might be done with greater dispatch, he engaged apartments at the hotel. Upon informing Mr. Bowen that the Italian convention would be ready for signature to-night, Venezuela's representative felt impelied to tell him that Germany had insisted on receiving all of the amount asked for in her uitimatum. The Ambassador cabled to Rome for further instructions.

ANGRY CONTRADICTIONS

Madame and M. Humbert Frequently Interrupted Witnesses.

(Br Associated Press.)
PARIS, Feb. 12.—The trial of the libel suit brought by M. Cattaui, a banker, against the Humbert family, which be-gan yesterday, was resumed to-day. There were large crowds inside and outide the court-room. M. Ludovic H. Levy, "Gyp" (Countess de Martel) and other prominent literary figures, were among the spectators. The prisoners maintained the same defiant attitude, Mme. Humbert and her husband, Frederic, frequently interrupting the wit-nesses with angry contradictions. Most of the session was devoted to Senator Cremieux's explanation of the prisoners legal connection with M. Cattul.
